INDEX

Aga Khan, 78
Alexander the Great, 110
Aloisi, Baron, 68
AMERICA'S CHOICE IN THE FAR EAST, Nathaniel Peffer, 89–93
Angell, Norman, cited, 71
Araki, Sadao, 83
Arita, Hachiro, 84
Armstrong, Hamilton Fish, 157, 160
Autarchy, see National self-sufficiency

Balance of power, United States interest in, 46, 50
Bankers, as opposed to war, 32
Banking: early development of, 30
  weakening of system, 31
Beales, A. C. F., cited, 100
Beard, Charles A., 66
Beer, George Louis, cited, 97
Bentham, Jeremy, 104
  cited, 103
  quoted, 94
Bergson, Henri Louis, cited, 103
Bisson, T. A., 180
  quoted, 181
Bodin, Jean, 97, 98, 112
  cited, 95
Borah, William E., 43
BORCHARD, EDWIN M., The Various Meanings of International Coöperation, 114–123
BRADLEY, PHILLIPS, Diplomacy by Coup D'État, 66–72
Bryce, James, 48
Butler, G., cited, 97, 98

Capital movements, restrictions upon, 56
  See also Foreign Investments
Cardenas, Lazaro, quoted, 187
Chelmsford, Lord, 77
China: domination of, by other powers, 90–91
  trade of, with Japan, 12
  See also Political strain
Churchill, Winston, 75
Cicero, 110
Clark, G. N., cited, 97
CLARK, GROVER, The Dangerous Fallacies of Imperialism, 6–15
Classification of world powers, 81
Clay, Henry, 121
Collective economic pressure, see Sanctions Collective security: idea of, 99–100 procedures for, 100–101
    as affecting sovereignty, 101–102
Colonial possessions: as outlet for surplus population, 6–7, 62
  as source of raw materials in war time, 12–13, 26, 61
  costs of acquiring and keeping, 7–9, 11 motives for acquiring, 61–62, 90
  trade of, as related to political control, 9–12, 62
  trade statistics of, for Italy, Germany, Japan, France, and Great Britain, 7–12
  undesirability of, 6–15
Commercial policy, see International trade
COMMERCIAL POLICY UNDER THE TRADE AGREEMENTS PROGRAM, Henry L. Deimel, Jr., 16–23
COMMERCIAL RELATIONS BETWEEN CUBA AND THE UNITED STATES, Guillermo Patterson y de Jáuregui, 188–193
Competition: between foreign and domestic merchandise, 137–142, 180, 181
  between Japan and United States in world markets, 140
Conant, James Bryant, 113
Conscientious objection to war, futility of, 51–52
Consumption: of American products by Cubans, 189–190, 192
  of sea products by Japan, 14
Conwell-Evans, T. P., cited, 98, 101
COULTER, JOHN LEE, Economic Aspects of United States Foreign Trade, 169–177
CRISIS OF FINANCE CAPITALISM, THE, George W. Edwards, 30–33
Crowther, Samuel, 136
  quoted, 137
Cuba: encouraging outlook for, 188
  transportation facilities of, 188–189
  See also International trade—United States; Standards of living
Currency: benefits of devaluation, 36–37, 39, 148–149
  devaluation of Belgian, 139
  dislocations of, as affecting international trade, 2–3, 17–18, 24–25, 37–38
  management of, 39
  See also Gold standard; Inflation; Monetary stabilization
CYBICHOWSKI, SIGISMUND, National Sovereignty and International Coöperation, 105–113

DANGEROUS FALLACIES OF IMPERIALISM, THE, Grover Clark, 6–15
Dante, 96
Davis, Norman, 120, 121
DEIMEL, HENRY L., JR., Commercial Policy Under the Trade Agreements Program, 16–23
Delbruck, Hans, cited, 97
Dictators, diplomatic methods of, 69–71

INDEX

Aga Khan, 78
Alexander the Great, 110
Aloisi, Baron, 68
AMERICA'S CHOICE IN THE FAR EAST, Nathaniel Peffer, 89–93
Angell, Norman, cited, 71
Araki, Sadao, 83
Arita, Hachiro, 84
Armstrong, Hamilton Fish, 157, 160
Autarchy, see National self-sufficiency

Balance of power, United States interest in, 46, 50
Bankers, as opposed to war, 32
Banking: early development of, 30
  weakening of system, 31
Beales, A. C. F., cited, 100
Beard, Charles A., 66
Beer, George Louis, cited, 97
Bentham, Jeremy, 104
  cited, 103
  quoted, 94
Bergson, Henri Louis, cited, 103
Bisson, T. A., 180
  quoted, 181
Bodin, Jean, 97, 98, 112
  cited, 95
Borah, William E., 43
BORCHARD, EDWIN M., The Various Meanings of International Coöperation, 114–123
BRADLEY, PHILLIPS, Diplomacy by Coup D'État, 66–72
Bryce, James, 48
Butler, G., cited, 97, 98

Capital movements, restrictions upon, 56
  See also Foreign Investments
Cardenas, Lazaro, quoted, 187
Chelmsford, Lord, 77
China: domination of, by other powers, 90–91
  trade of, with Japan, 12
  See also Political strain
Churchill, Winston, 75
Cicero, 110
Clark, G. N., cited, 97
CLARK, GROVER, The Dangerous Fallacies of Imperialism, 6–15
Classification of world powers, 81
Clay, Henry, 121
Collective economic pressure, see Sanctions Collective security: idea of, 99–100 procedures for, 100–101
    as affecting sovereignty, 101–102
Colonial possessions: as outlet for surplus population, 6–7, 62
  as source of raw materials in war time, 12–13, 26, 61
  costs of acquiring and keeping, 7–9, 11
  motives for acquiring, 61–62, 90
  trade of, as related to political control, 9–12, 62
  trade statistics of, for Italy, Germany, Japan, France, and Great Britain, 7–12
  undesirability of, 6–15
Commercial policy, see International trade
COMMERCIAL POLICY UNDER THE TRADE AGREEMENTS PROGRAM, Henry L. Deimel, Jr., 16–23
COMMERCIAL RELATIONS BETWEEN CUBA AND THE UNITED STATES, Guillermo Patterson y de Jáuregui, 188–193
Competition: between foreign and domestic merchandise, 137–142, 180, 181
  between Japan and United States in world markets, 140
Conant, James Bryant, 113
Conscientious objection to war, futility of, 51–52
Consumption: of American products by Cubans, 189–190, 192
  of sea products by Japan, 14
Conwell-Evans, T. P., cited, 98, 101
COULTER, JOHN LEE, Economic Aspects of United States Foreign Trade, 169–177
CRISIS OF FINANCE CAPITALISM, THE, George W. Edwards, 30–33
Crowther, Samuel, 136
  quoted, 137
Cuba: encouraging outlook for, 188
  transportation facilities of, 188–189
  See also International trade—United States; Standards of living
Currency: benefits of devaluation, 36–37, 39, 148–149
  devaluation of Belgian, 139
  dislocations of, as affecting international trade, 2–3, 17–18, 24–25, 37–38
  management of, 39
  See also Gold standard; Inflation; Monetary stabilization
CYBICHOWSKI, SIGISMUND, National Sovereignty and International Coöperation, 105–113

DANGEROUS FALLACIES OF IMPERIALISM, THE, Grover Clark, 6–15
Dante, 96
Davis, Norman, 120, 121
DEIMEL, HENRY L., JR., Commercial Policy Under the Trade Agreements Program, 16–23
Delbruck, Hans, cited, 97
Dictators, diplomatic methods of, 69–71

DIPLOMACY BY COUP D'ÉTAT, Phillips Bradley, 66–72
Disarmament, status of efforts toward, 155–156, 161
Disraeli, Benjamin, 156
DUGGAN, STEPHEN P., Political Strain in Europe, 61–65
  cited, 81
  quoted, 183
DULLES, ALLEN W., Economic Implications of American Neutrality Policy, 41–47; 50, 157, 160
Dupuis, Charles, 121
Dye, Alexander V., quoted, 188

Eagleton, Clyde, cited, 98
  quoted, 119
EBLE, F. X. A., Foreign Trade Daydreams, 135–142
ECONOMIC ASPECTS OF UNITED STATES FOREIGN TRADE, John Lee Coulter, 169–177
ECONOMIC IMPLICATIONS OF AMERICAN NEUTRALITY POLICY, Allen W. Dulles, 41–47
ECONOMIC MEANS FOR ATTAINING AND MAINTAINING PEACE, René Seydoux, 55–60 Economic sanctions, see Sanctions
ECONOMICS OF NEUTRALITY, Ernest Minor Patterson, 155–162
Edison, Thomas A., 141
Education in Mexico, 186
EDWARDS, GEORGE W., The Crisis of Finance Capitalism, 30–33
Emeny, Brooks, cited, 68
Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 158
Erasmus, 100
European status quo, an unhealthy condition, 119

Far East, see China; International trade; Japan; Political strain
Feis, Herbert, 159
Feuchtwanger, Leon, cited, 68
Finance capitalism crisis of: factors in, 31–32 relief of, 32–33 history of, 30–31
Flandin, Pierre Etienne, 71
Ford, Henry, 141
Foreign investments: as a cause of war, 159 imperiled by national self-sufficiency, 132
  in Latin America, 126, 183, 185, 187
  losses in, 173
FOREIGN TRADE AND THE DOMESTIC WELFARE, Edgar W. Smith, 143–150
FOREIGN TRADE DAYDREAMS, F. X. A. Eble, 135–142
Forster, W. Arnold, cited, 98

Gandhi, Mahatma, 73, 74
Gentili, Alberico, 98
Gokhale, G. K., 73
Gold standard: arguments against and for, 38–39
  France and, 35–36
  Great Britain and, 24, 35, 39
  Japan and, 24 nations on, 35
  United States and, 35, 39–40
  See also Currency; Monetary stabilization Gomez, Miguel Mariano, 188
Grady, Henry F., quoted, 191–192
Grandi, Dino, quoted, 116
Grotius, Hugo, 98, 106, 121, 165
  cited, 95
  quoted, 120

Habicht, Max, cited, 101
Halifax, Viscount (formerly Lord Irwin), 79
Hamilton, Alexander, 117
Hay, John, 90
Henry IV of France, 110, 111
Hirota, Koki, 83
Hitler, Adolf, 64, 70, 71, 79, 108
Hoare, Samuel, 27, 66, 74, 77, 79
Holland, Thomas E., cited, 68
Howard, Roy, 85
Hull, Cordell, 162
  quoted, 191

Imperialism: fallacies of, 6–15
  United States trend away from, 124 India
  new constitution of: and electoral system, 76–77 and governmental structure, 75–76 and system of representation, 76 as destroying responsible government, 77–78 as regarded by political parties, 74–75 political parties and organizations of, 73–74 unhappy relations between India and England, 78–80
INDIA AND ENGLAND, Kodanda Rao, 73–80
Inflation, French experience with, 35–36
International authority necessary, 60
International balances: payments, 132, 146, 172–173 trade, 136–138, 181 between Japan and United States, 178, 181 bilateral, 20
    Mexican, 185
International coöperation, expressed in treaties, 114–115
  See also United States and world politics International monetary stabilization, see Monetary stabilization International trade as affected by: currency depreciation, 24–25, 38 national progress, 179–180 as affecting: employment and unemployment, 131, 135, 138, 141–142, 145, 146–147, 191 general prosperity, 3, 16, 130–132, 191–192 international payments, 132, 146 monetary stability, 148–149 peace and war, 27, 59–60, 133–134, 136, 149–150, 161–162, 192–193 standards of living, 92, 143–144, 147, 166–167, 173–174, 189–190 as involving differences in labor conditions, 140, 176 Japanese, 24–25

competition of, with United States, 140, 180–181 with United States, 140, 180, 181 Latin American, 184–187, 190, 192 must be reciprocal, 181–182
United States: as displacing domestic merchandise, including rugs and textiles, 137–141 extent of, 129–130, 138 trends in, 169–171
with Cuba, 190, 192
with Japan, 140, 180, 181
with various countries, statistics of, 183–184
See also Colonial possessions; International balances—trade; National self-sufficiency; Trade Agreements Act; Trade barriers Internationalism: projects of, 110–112 versus nationalism, 109–110 world state, the, 110
Irwin, Lord (now Lord Halifax), 79
Isolation, see National self-sufficiency; Neutrality

James, William, cited, 69
Japan: consumption of sea products by, 14 industrialization of, 178–179 internal difficulties of, 24–25 pan-Asiatic aims of, 81–84, 89–90
United States policy toward, 91–93
See also Colonial possessions; Political strain; Raw materials
JAPAN'S FOREIGN TRADE, Hirosi Saito, 178–182
Jefferson, Thomas, 167
Jessup, Philip C., 120
Jones, Clarence F., quoted, 186
Joshi, N. M., 74

Kant, Immanuel, 111, 112
Kawagoe, Shigeru, 83, 84
Kellogg, Frank B., 120
Kelsen, Hans, cited, 99
Keynes, J. M., 3

Labor conditions, differences in, involved in international trade, 140, 176
Lansbury, George, 48
Lasswell, H. D., cited, 103
Latin America: articles exported by, 184–185 lacking in capital and resources, 186–187 United States relations with: changes in, 124–126 commercial, 125–126, 183–185 political, 126–127
See also Cuba; International trade; Mexico; Pan Americanism
Laval, Pierre, 3
League of Nations: and collective security, 101–102
United States and, 161
weakness of, 58, 122
See also Peace plan, European Legislation: as a cure for all ills, 41, 52 neutrality: high plane of, 168 moderation of, 44, 47
Neutrality Act of August 1935, 159–160
weakness of, 52, 160
Leibnitz, Gottfried W. von, 113
Leith-Ross, Frederick, 87
Lewis, Sinclair, cited, 68
Liberty: threatened by national self-sufficiency, 132–133 threatened in the United States, 127–128
Liefmann, Robert, cited, 30
Lindley, Francis, quoted, 87
Livy, 165
Longfellow, Henry W., 49
Louis XIV, 67

Maccoby, S., cited, 97, 98
Machiavelli, Niccolò di Bernardo, 96
cited, 97
MACKINTOSH, W. A., Trade Barriers as an Obstacle to Prosperity, 1–5
Madariaga, Salvador de, 156
Madison, James, 117, 121
Manchuria, trade of, with Japan, 11–12
Mancini, Pasquale S., 105, 106, 107
Manufactured goods: competition of imports with, 137–142, 180, 181 international exchange of, needed, 146, 175–176
Mexico: attitude of, toward foreign capital, 187 economic conditions in, 185 education in, 186
social reforms in, 187
See also Latin America
Migration: restrictions upon, 55 to and from colonial possessions, 6
Military self-sufficiency, see National self-sufficiency
Miller, Hunter, cited, 102
Millis, Walter, 157
Minobe, Tatsukichi, 96
Minorities, status and rights of, 108–109
Monetary policy of United States, evils of, 161 Monetary stabilization: as affected by international trade, 148–149 international, prospect of, 3, 39–40 needed to relieve world strain, 161

See also Currency; Gold standard; Inflation
Monetary world structure, 34–35
Money, see Currency; Monetary stabilization Monroe Doctrine: and neutrality, 166–167 clarification and limitation of, 124–125
Monroe, James, 124
Montagu, E. S., 74, 77
MORLEY, FELIX, Political Implications of American Neutrality Policy, 48–54
Morley, John, 74
Mussolini, Benito, 53, 62, 63, 70, 71, 79

NÁJERA, FRANCISCO CASTILLO, Pan American Trade and Mexico, 183–187
National minorities, see Minorities
National Recovery Administration, as affecting the rug industry, 139
National security: breakdown of, 100 insecurity leads to regimentation, 127–128
See also Collective security National self-sufficiency: as affecting disposal of surplus production, 129–132
as affecting foreign investments, 132 European desire for, 61 evils of, 59
imperils peace, 133–134 impossibility of, 26, 27 incentive for colonial expansion, 12–13, 26 intellectual retreat from, 2 leads to regimentation, 132–133 material costs of, 131–132 stimulated by sanctions, 58–59, 118
NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTY AND COLLECTIVE SECURITY, Quincy Wright, 94–104
NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTY AND INTERNATIONAL COÖPERATION, Sigismund Cybichowski, 105–113 Nationalism: principles of, 105 versus internationalism, 109–110
Nationality: criteria of, 106–107 rights of, 108
Natural resources, see Raw materials
Neutrality: arguments against, 45–46, 52–54, 120, 164–166 arguments for, 120–123 demand for, 156
denunciation of, 119 desired by business men, 42–43 effects of arms and trade embargoes, 45–47, 122, 160 impossible to maintain, 50, 166 misconceptions regarding, 51–52 possible to maintain, 121 purposes of, 157
weaknesses of neutrality policy, 160 does not prevent war, 49–50, 51, 53, 158–159, 163–164 economic, 44–47, 50
legal, 51
moral, 50–51
Nicolson, Harold, 117
Nye, Gerald P., 122

Ogden, C. K., cited, 94, 95, 103
Okada, Keisuke, 83
Okobe, Colonel, quoted, 84
Olney, Richard, 125
Open door, the, threatened by Japan, 90
Ortega y Gasset, José, 67

PAN AMERICAN TRADE AND MEXICO, Francisco Castillo Nájera, 183–187
Pan Americanism, importance of, 127–128
See also Latin America
PATTERSON, ERNEST MINOR, Economics of Neutrality, 155–162
PATTERSON Y DE JÁUREGUI, GUILLERMO, Commercial Relations Between Cuba and the United States, 188–193
Peace conditions of: an international authoritative body, 60 compulsion to keep the peace and to negotiate, 72 freedom of international exchange, 59–60, 149–150 punishment for aggressors, 53–54
imperiled by national self-sufficiency, 133–134
price of, 92–93
See also Neutrality; Political strain; War Peace movement: fallacies of, 116–118 militaristic tendencies of, 119
Peace plan, European, weaknesses of, 115–116
PEFFER, NATHANIEL, America's Choice in the Far East, 89–93
Phillips, W. Alison, cited, 100
Plowman, Max, cited, 71
POLITICAL IMPLICATIONS OF AMERICAN NEUTRALITY POLICY, Felix Morley, 48–54 Political strain causes of economic insecurity, political inequality, emotional frustration, 68–70 imperialist antagonisms, and capitalist opposition to a socialist country, 81 monetary policy of United States, 161 economic excuses for expansion, 61–62
France, 64
Germany, 63–64
Great Britain and Italy, 62–63 increase of, 66
India and England, 73–80
Japan and China, 81–84, 86
Japan and Great Britain, 86–87
Japan and Soviet Union, 84–86
Japan and the United States, 87–88, 91–93
Soviet Russia, 64–65
POLITICAL STRAIN IN EUROPE, Stephen P. Duggan, 61–65

POLITICAL STRAIN IN THE FAR EAST, Leonard T. K. Wu, 81–88
Population, see Migration
Potter, P. B., cited, 100
PRESENT SITUATION ON THE AMERICAN CONTINENT, THE, L. S. Rowe, 124–128
PROBLEM OF INTERNATIONAL MONETARY STABILIZATION, THE, James Harvey Rogers, 34–40
Pullman, George Mortimer, 141

QUESTION OF SELF-SUFFICIENCY, THE, Francis Bowes Sayre, 129–134

RAO, KODANDA, India and England, 73–80
Rappard, W. E., cited, 101
Ratcliffe, S. K., cited, 69
Raw materials: as related to war and peace, 12–13, 26–27, 61 decreased significance of, 13–14 in Japan, 27
  in Latin America, 186
  international exchange of, needed, 175
  new sources of, 14
  substitutes for, 13
Regout, Robert, cited, 97
Ricardo, David, 5
Richards, I. A., cited, 103
Ritsher, W. H., cited, 102
Robertson, G. G., 141
  quoted, 140
ROGERS, JAMES HARVEY, The Problem of International Monetary Stabilization, 34–40
Roosevelt, Franklin D., 118
Roosevelt, Theodore, 125
ROWE, L. S., The Present Situation on the American Continent, 124–128
Rudlin, W. A., cited, 67

St. Pierre, Charles de, 110, 111
SAITO, HIROSI, Japan's Foreign Trade, 178–182
Sanctions: as affecting nations employing them, 28 as stimulating national self-sufficiency, 58–59, 118 deciding body as to application of, 58 diplomatic implications of, 118 effective application of, 57–58 impracticality of, 27–28, 45–46, 117 liability to, 101 necessary to peace, 53–54 possible effectiveness of, 167
  United States participation in, 168
Sapru, Tej Bahadur, 78
Sastri, V. S. Srinivasa, 73
SAYRE, FRANCIS BOWES, The Question of Self-Sufficiency, 129–134; 143
  quoted, 136, 191
Schuman, Frederick L., cited, 100
Schuschnigg, Kurt, quoted, 66
Scientific integration needed, 112–113
Scott, J. B., cited, 99
Sea products, consumption of by Japan, 14
Self-sufficiency, see National self-sufficiency
SEYDOUX, RENÉ, Economic Means for Attaining and Maintaining Peace, 55–60
Shigemitsu, Mamoru, 84
Smith, Adam, 3
SMITH, EDGAR W., Foreign Trade and the Domestic Welfare, 143–150 Sovereignty: as affected by procedures for collective security, 101–102 conceptions of, 95–96, 112 definition of, 94–95 functions of, 98–99 future of, 102–104
  location of, 96–97
  sociological foundations of, 97–98
Spengler, Oswald, 67
Stabilization, see Monetary stabilization Staley, Eugene, quoted, 159
Stalin, Joseph, 85
Standards of living dependent upon international trade relations, 92, 93, 143–144, 147, 166–167, 173–174, 189–190, 192 in Cuba, 189–190
  in Latin America, raised by United States enterprises, 126
STONE, EDWARD, World Peace and Monetary and Financial Strain, 24–29
  cited, 32
Streit, Clarence K., cited, 68
Sturzo, Luigi, cited, 97
Sully, Maximilien de Béthune, 110, 111, 112
Surplus production, agricultural and industrial, foreign markets necessary for, 129–130, 144–145, 175, 191

Takeuchi, Tatsuji, cited, 96
Tanaka, Giichi, 82
Tariffs, see Trade barriers
THEORY OF NEUTRALITY, Elbert D. Thomas, 163–168
THOMAS, ELBERT D., Theory of Neutrality, 163–168
Toyama, Mitsuru, 83
Trade Agreements Act: agreements concluded under, list of, 23 equality of treatment assured by agreements under, 22–23 purpose and nature of, 21–22
Trade balances, see International balances Trade barriers: and currency dislocations, 2–3, 17–18, 37–38
  causes of, 1, 26, 56, 57 characteristics of, 19–20 complexity of, 16–17, 56 reduction of: affects domestic industries adversely, 139–141 prospect for, 3–5

through clearing and compensation agreements, 19 results of, 18, 26–27
regimentation, 147–148
United States policy regarding, 21–23
TRADE BARRIERS AS AN OBSTACLE TO PROSPERITY, W. A. Mackintosh, 1–5
Transportation facilities of Cuba, 188–189

Unemployment
as affected by international trade, 131, 135, 138, 141–142, 145, 191
in Mexico, 185
United States and world politics, 46, 49–50, 118 trend toward isolation from Europe, 125
See also Neutrality

Vanderpol, A., cited, 98
VARIOUS MEANINGS OF INTERNATIONAL COÖPERATION, THE, Edwin M. Borchard, 114–123
Vattel, Emmerichs de, 106
Vitoria, Francisco di, 98

Wallace, Henry A., quoted, 191
War: as relieving internal economic tension, 25, 28, 34, 70 as the only means of restraining Japan, 89, 92–93 attitude of bankers toward, 32 causes of: economic, 24–26, 27, 28, 149–150, 158–159 foreign investments, 159 menace to vital national interests, 43–44 other than economic, 61 population pressure, 158
profiteering, 41–43, 49, 51 unnecessary to gain desired results, 26, 29
See also Neutrality; Peace; Political strain; Sanctions; World War
Washington, George, 165
Westinghouse, George, 141
Wilgus, A. Curtis, 186
Willcox, O. W., 158
Williams, John F., cited, 101
Wilson, Woodrow, 41, 102
Woodman, D., cited, 71
WORLD PEACE AND MONETARY AND FINANCIAL STRAIN, Edward Stone, 24–29
World War: as developing commerce with Latin America, 183
United States participation in: motives for, 41–44 necessity for, 157
unsatisfactory results of, 42, 114, 118
"war profit" theory of United States entry into, 41–43
Wright, Orville and Wilbur, 54
WRIGHT, QUINCY, National Sovereignty and Collective Security, 94–104; 50
cited, 94, 95, 96, 98, 100, 101, 102, 103
quoted, 120
Wright, Sewall, cited, 99
WU, LEONARD T. K., Political Strain in the Far East, 81–88

Zetland, Lord, 77